Open = Any student, faculty or staff members can get their photo taken at this time.

Faculty/Staff = Preference will be given to faculty and staff at these times so they can get their photos taken and return to work.

Greeks = Preference will be given to the organization scheduled at that time, or to members of Greek Organizations if scheduled on Friday, should they be unable to show at the scheduled time because of class or other conflict.

All students will be allowed to get their photos taken at any time, as long as the photographer is not busy with a scheduled group. During group times, preference will be given to members of the groups over non-members.

When getting your photo taken be sure to specify what organization you are with, and/or your name (spelled correctly), your current academic year (Freshmen, Sophomore, Junior, Senior) and specify A or B Section.
