The fellowship structure is as follows: Tutors have the opportunity to earn some money for themselves, as well as their favorite organization (must fall within the scope of Kagle’s mission and vision), while giving back to the community. Working once a week can earn between $50-$100 for an organization while twice a week could earn between $125-$200. Given that and the understanding that missing excess days will violate the contract, what organization would you want a contribution in your name to be forwarded to?
