Kettering University and DECA/ BPA – A Perfect Fit

DECA and BPA students don't sit still – and neither do Kettering students! Our cooperative and experiential learning program focuses on innovation and hands-on experience. We get to the good stuff right away!

DECA at Kettering University

We love DECA and BPA entrepreneurs so much that we have built our School of Management around the same principles. In addition, Kettering University has a nationally-ranked collegiate DECA team.

Multiple Scholarships Available

Because of your involvement in DECA or BPA, you may qualify for a Kettering University scholarship!

- Kettering University awards multiple DECA and BPA scholarships annually, each valued at $11,250.
- DECA or BPA scholarship can be stacked with your merit scholarship, the average merit amount being $14,500.

Why You Belong at Kettering University

As a DECA or BPA student, you are a problem solver. You come up with ideas and discuss them. We like that about you.

AS A KETTERING STUDENT, YOU WILL:

- Alternate between three months of school – learning amazing material in small classes, and three months of co-op employment – where you will apply what you've learned to the real world.
- Be part of the only program of its kind where you can begin working as early as your freshman year.
- Work in a school working with major emerging trends in the business world, and develop the skills needed to be a global leader.
- Get hands-on experiences in all classes, in addition to a Management capstone course in which you work with a company coming up with strategic initiatives in a consultation-based style.
