All English as a Second Language Program (ESLP) student applicants must document their ability to meet all educational and living expenses for the entire period of their intended study in the ESLP before the program will issue a Certificate of Visa Eligibility (Form I-20). Please Note: The ESLP can require up to four terms (1 year) to complete.

During this year, the financial proof requirement is 44,000 USD for ESLP students at Kettering University.

The ESLP may require proof of additional funding as costs of attending the ESLP at Kettering University may periodically increase.

A Financial Statement includes an Affidavit of Support (below) signed by the person(s) responsible for your funding for the entire duration of the course of study at the ESLP at Kettering University. The financial sponsor may be a parent, legal guardian, government, educational institution or an official agency.

The Affidavit of Support must be accompanied by an original certified bank statement in U.S. currency stating funds are available OR by a certified government, educational institution or official agency financial proof document on official stationary with an original seal and signature(s) stating full financial support for the duration of the ESLP.
