AFFINITY SCHOLARSHIPS AT KETTERING UNIVERSITY

The Affinity Scholarship encourages a family tradition of attending Kettering University.

Kettering is a nationally-ranked university with programs in engineering, mathematics, business and science that are richly integrated with hands-on and cooperative learning opportunities. Our students graduate with an extraordinary ability to link what they learn in the classroom to real world, hands-on experiences. It gives our graduates the knowledge to be globally competitive and the soft skills they need to be truly successful.

SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

To receive the scholarship, applicants must be admitted to Kettering University as an entering freshman or transfer student during the 2019-20 academic year and meet one or more of the criteria below:

- › Sibling of a currently enrolled Kettering University student
- › Have a parent or grandparent who graduated from GMI/Kettering University
- › Have a parent employed by Eaton

SCHOLARSHIP VALUE

Total value up to $3,500

To receive the full $3,500 the student would need to meet all 3 of the above criteria:

- › 1 category = $2,000
- › 2 categories = $3,000
- › 3 categories = $3,500

The Affinity Scholarship may be combined with other Kettering University Merit or Transfer Scholarships, but cannot exceed $26,000.
